Come let us worship him

How could this night be different from so many nights before?
How could we have imagined the miracle in store?
But the angel gave the promise, and the star has shown the way, to the little town of Bethlehem to the manger where he lay.

Come, let us worship the child born in a manger this holy night.
Come bring your gifts to the King.
Join with the angels and sing. Oh --- glory!
Glory to God in the highest! Oh, glory!
Come, let us worship him, oh come, let us worship him.

We'll shout it from the mountains, proclaim it in the streets:
Emmanuel is with us, he is the newborn King!
The everlasting father he is the Prince of Peace.
Come and bow before the manger now, and worship at his feet!

Come, let us worship the child, born in a manger this holy night!
Come, bring your gifts to the King.
Join with the angels and sing. Oh --- glory
Glory to God in the highest! Oh --- glory!
Come, let us worship him, oh come, let us worship him.

Come, let us worship the child born in a manger this holy night.
Come, bring your gifts to the King.
Join with the angels and sing. Join with the angels and sing. Oh sing ---
Come, let us worship the King! Come